Hon. J. Edgar Hoover

Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

On Friday, April 4, I called Mr. Ladd of your office regarding a report circulated by the Bureau under date of 22 March 1952, to Mr. Donald L. Nicholson at the State Department, with a copy to CIA, which among other subjects related to me and requested observations regarding the information supplied with respect to me.

As I have not heard from your office in reply to my telephone inquiry, I would appreciate being advised as to the disposition you propose to make with respect to the above report.

Faithfully yours,

Allen W. Dulles
Acting Director
